Course Number: PDHU (Humanities) 480D

Course Title: Interculturalism and Global Exploration

Semester Credits: 3 Credits

Course Location: Online via Brightspace at SNHU

Instructor Contact Information: See Brightspace course

Prerequisite: Must be registered for an EF tour

Course Description

Throughout the course students complete experiential activities that help them explore their EF tour destinations, challenge personal assumptions, and discover connections between people, places, and cultures. The interdisciplinary structure facilitates explorations of business, education, culture, government and political science, and physical and social sciences. This course is designed to promote and develop global awareness, new perspectives, and connectedness to increase students' overall global competence.

Course Rationale

The course experience will incorporate student travel, include ongoing dialogue with other travelers, and individually focus on geographic and cultural study. The course increases students' awareness of the uniqueness and interdependence of the world's cultures and geographies. Through experiential learning, students establish a broader understanding of the world and the lives of others around the world.

Enrollment Requirements

This specialized learning opportunity is available only to students traveling with EF Educational Tours or EF Explore America, and registered for this Southern New Hampshire University course. To enroll, you must register through both EF and SNHU.
